14. Board Member Communications:

Mrs. Kristina Gunter – Thank you to all our nurses for their guidance through this Covid year. She stated that her son had received his first vaccine shot and encouraged other parents to do the same. She also expressed gratitude to the staff for making this School year a success. Congratulations to our archery students for winning state and having such a great year.

Mr. Eric Stroud – Glad to welcome new hires and well wishes to those moving on to new adventures .

Mr. Steve Hanger – Thanks to Administration, Cafeteria workers, and Staff. Glad we made it through with in person school.

Mr. Kerry Ingle – Welcome new hires. It is great to see so many North Harrison graduates returning to work here. It is awesome to see the athletic fields full again.

Mrs. Marla Adams – Congratulations to Ms. Pinnick and Ms. Cassie Anderson as they move on from North Harrison to the next life adventure. Mr. Aich did an excellent job with our Choir students this year. They performed beautifully at theirs Spring Concert. They also received several gold ratings at State.

Dr. Steve Hatton – Stated that this school year went remarkably well. The staff has been flexible and worked hard to get things done. Summer School bus routes are in place and will be picking students up at their homes this year.

Dr. Lance Richards – We lost several activity seasons last year. We are thankful to see these Activities taking place now. Thank you to Mr. Zink, the teachers, and bus drivers for making this year work. We not have 6 days left! We are fortunate. He encouraged everyone to get vaccinated. Our intent is to have all students back to in person school next year. Graduation is, in theory, going to be outdoors. Decision will be set the Wednesday before graduation.

15. Mr. Eric Stroud moved and Mrs. Kristina Gunter seconded the motion to adjourn the meeting at 7:36 p.m. Motion passed 5-0.
