		Feeling	Thinking
Introverts	Judging	ISFJ Quiet, friendly, responsible, and conscientious. Works devotedly to meet his obligations and serves his friends and school. Thorough and painstaking, accurate with figures, but needs time to master technical subjects, as reasoning is not his strong point. Patient with detail and routine. Loyal, considerate, concerned with how others feel, even when they are in the wrong.	ISTJ Serious, quiet, earns his success by earnest concentration and unhurried thoroughness. Logical and orderly in his work and dependable in all he does. Sees to it that everything he touches is well organized. Takes responsibility of his own accord. Makes up his own mind as to what should be accomplished and works toward it steadily regardless of the protests of distractions.
	Perceptive	ISFP Retiring, quietly friendly, sensitive, hates argument of any kind, is always too modest about his abilities. Has no wish to be a leader, but is a loyal, willing follower. Puts things off to the last minute and beyond. Never really drives himself about anything because he enjoys the present moment and does not want it spoiled.	ISTP Quiet, reserved, a sort of cool onlooker at life, observing and analyzing it with detached curiosity and unexpected flashes of original humor. Interested mainly in mechanics, in cars, in sports and in business. Exerts himself only as much as he considers actually necessary, even if he happens to be a star athlete.
Extroverts	Perceptive	ESFP Outgoing, easygoing, uncritical, friendly, very fond of a good time. Enjoys sports and making things, restless if he has to sit still. Knows what's happening and joins in helpfully. Literal-minded, tires to remember rather than reason, is easily confused by theory. Has good common sense and practical ability, but is not at all interested in study for its own sake.	ESTP Matter-of-fact, doesn't worry or hurry, always has a good time. Likes mechanical things, cars and sports, with friends on the side. A little blunt and insensitive. Can take school or leave it. Won't bother to follow a wordy explanation, but comes alive when there is something real to be worked, handled or taken apart. Can do math and technical stuff when he sees he will need it.
	Judging	ESFJ Warm-hearted, talkative, popular, conscientious, interested in everyone, and a born cooperater and active committee member. Has no capacity for analysis or abstract thinking and so has trouble with technical subjects, but works hard to master the facts in a lesson and win approval. Works best with plenty of praise and encouragement. Always doing something nice for someone in a practical way.	ESTJ Practical, realistic, matter-of-fact with a natural head for business. Likes the mechanics of things. Not interested in subjects that he sees no actual use for, but can apply himself when necessary. Is good at organizing and running school activities, but sometimes rubs people the wrong way by ignoring their feelings and viewpoints.

Introverts	Judging	INFJ	Gifted and original student who succeeds through combination of intelligence, perseverance and desire to please. Puts his best efforts into his work because he wouldn't think of doing less than his best. Quiet, conscientious, considerate of others, widely respected, if not popular, but suffers socially from unwillingness to compromise where a principal or conviction is involved.	INTJ	Original mind and a great amount of drive which he uses only when it pleases him. In fields that appeal to his imagination, he has a fine power to organize a job or piece of work and carry it through with or without the help of others. He is always skeptical, critical and independent, generally determined and often stubborn. Can never be driven, seldom led.
	Perception	INFP	Particularly enthusiastic about books, reads or tells the parts he likes best to friends. Interested and responsive in class, always attentive and quick to see what the teacher is leading up to. Has a warm, friendly personality but is not sociable just for the sake of sociability and seldom puts his mind on his possessions or physical surroundings.	INTP	Quiet, reserved, brilliant in exams, especially in theoretical or scientific subjects. Logical to the point of hairsplitting. Has no capacity for small talk and is uncomfortable at parties. Primarily interested in his studies and wouldn't want to be president of his class. Liked by his teachers for his scholarship and by fellow students who get to know him for himself.
Extroverts	Perceptive	ENFP	Warmly enthusiastic, high-spirited, ingenious, imaginative, can do almost anything that interests him. Quick with a solution for any difficulty and very ready to help people with a problem on their hands. Often relies on his spur-of-the-moment ability to improvise instead of preparing his work in advance. Can usually talk his way out of any jam with charm and ease.	ENTP	Quick, ingenious, gifted in many lines, lively and stimulating company, alert, and outspoken, argues for fun on either side of any question. Resourceful in solving new and challenging problems, but tends to neglect routine assignments as a boring waste of time. Turns to one new interest after another. Can always find excellent reasons for whatever he wants.
	Judging	ENFJ	Responsive and responsible. Feels a real concern for what others think and want, and tries always to handle things with due regard for the other fellow's feelings and desires. Can lead a group discussion or present a proposal with care and tact. Sociable, popular, active in school affairs, but puts time enough on his lessons for good work	ENTJ	Hearty, frank, able in studies and a leader in activities. Particularly good in anything requiring reasoning and intelligent talk, like debating or public speaking. Well informed and keeps adding to his fund of knowledge. May be a bit too positive in matters where his experience has not yet caught up with his self-confidence.
